

Commissio Leonina

August 24, 2004

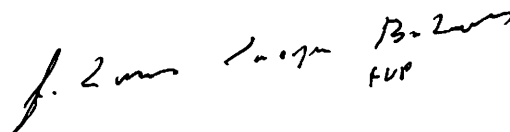

To whom it may concern,

I am writing on behalf of Fr. Athansius Sulavik in response to his request for a letter of recommendation concerning his abilities as an academic scholar.

Fr. Athanasius until two years ago, worked under my supervision at Grottaferrata, Italy on the Leonine Commission for a period of six years ending August 2002, and I was very satisfied of his aptitudes and of his rapid progresses.

He has done excellent work as a scholar, is a capable teacher, and a clever, diligent and tireless worker. He demonstrated a keen scholarly inquisitiveness and worked diligently to excel. I expect that trait will help him make a great contribution in the field of medieval studies, specially in the story of exegesis and predication. I believe that he has already begun on that with his publications and dissertation.

In summary, I unreservedly recommend Fr. Athanasius as a researcher and teacher. I'll be pleased to discuss any of this information in greater detail if you care to call or e-mail me.
